Civil aviation is very tightly regulated to help ensure the highest levels of safety. Basic international regulations are set by a United Nations body called the International Civil Aviation Organisation. Individual national regulators then take these regulations implementing and enforcing them in their own country. They may also add to them to further raise safety levels. Subpart 11.F—Exemptions from provisions of these Regulations and Civil Aviation Orders Division 11.F.1—Grant of standard exemptions 11.155 Purpose of Division, Civil Rights (Safety Standards In Commercial Aviation).
