Read aloud of Xavier Garza's The Man in the Silver Mask. There is two page author's note at the end about the history of lucha libre - "the poor man's theater." Great read aloud for any of the elementary grades, leading to potentially culturally rich conversations where the teacher can be the learner. In Xavier Garza's bilingual kids' book, young Carlitos attends his first lucha libre match in Mexico City. At ringside, Carlitos sees the famous luchador?the Man in the Silver Mask, a man whose eyes look terribly familiar. *Críticas *STARRED REVIEW As if going to a lucha libre ("wrestling") match with his grandfather and uncle weren't exciting enough, the young narrator of this engaging story buys a mask identical to the one worn by his favorite wrestler., Lucha Libre The Man In The Silver Mask.
