

Download Centers Lose Membership, Grow Costly As They Age (local)

A consultant's report shows Seatack needs an estimated $1.5 million expansion to build meeting and workout space, while the other three centers are in better shape because they were built after 1990.2 of 5 State and federal funding hasn't matched rising rents or wages, the leaders of nonprofit organizations and for-profit business serving people with disabilities say. Senior Care Industry Analysis 2018 - Cost & Trends Thanks to the baby boomer generation born in the late 1940s and 1950s, the number of American senior citizens is growing. As the boomer population reaches age 65, the senior population is projected to reach 83.7 million – almost double the estimated number in 2012 and approximately twenty percent of the total US population. This statistic shows the number of memberships at fitness centers/ health clubs in the United States from 2000 to 2017. In 2017, U.S. fitness centers had a total membership of 60.87 million., Centers Lose Membership, Grow Costly As They Age (local).

Other Files :