Popular culture studies is the study of popular culture from a critical theory perspective combining communication studies and cultural studies. The first institution to offer bachelor's and master's degrees in Popular Culture is the Bowling Green State University Department of Popular Culture founded by Ray B. Browne.[citation needed] Popular culture (also called pop culture) is generally recognized by members of a society as a set of the practices, beliefs and objects that are dominant or ubiquitous in a society at a given point in time. We collaborate with faculty, staff, and students to make UALR accessible to everyone. Our expertise is in the intersection of disability and design. Continue... Continue reading? What is Zero Tolerance? Zero Tolerance is an initiative led by NDS in partnership with the disability sector.
