

Download In Flanders Fields 100 Years

The In Flanders Fields Museum presents the story of the First World War in the West Flanders front region. John McCrae's poem "In Flanders Fields" has resonated for generations. In this 100th year of Armistice, a new voice has been given to his words with a modern interpretation connecting 1918 to 2018. The Poppy, made famous through John McCrae's poem "In Flanders Fields" can be traced back to the Napoleonic Wars before being adopted in Canada. Lieutenant Colonel John McCrae, MD (November 30, 1872 – January 28, 1918) was a Canadian poet, physician, author, artist and soldier during World War I, and a surgeon during the Second Battle of Ypres, in Belgium., In Flanders Fields 100 Years.

Other Files :