

Download Radical Evil A Philosophical Interrogation

This book by a renowned philosopher fails, in my humble opinion, to clearly define what evil is, and so fails to understand what "radical" evil is, whatever that means. Evil is evil. In my perhaps philistine mind, Evil is the opposite of Good, where the Good is life itself: and thus is nurturing and salvific. Then Evil is what diminishes or destroys life or the quality of life. That's it. | 60 | Radical Evil: A Philosophical Interrogation by Richard Bernstein, Polity Press, 2002, 304 pp. Jean Bethke Elshtain Let me get a gripe out of the way before I begin to review seriously this work by a Radical Evil book.
