Although the exact country is not mentioned, we can assume that it might be today’s Zimbabwe or South Africa, because the author herself grew up there and the story might have several autobiographical elements, but also because Johannesburg is mentioned in the story. “The Old Chief Mshlanga” by Doris Lessing tells the story of an English girl. She is brought up in Africa and, in her early childhood, her memories of the English landscape overlap with her impressions of the African countryside., The Old Chief Mshlanga From African Stories.
